Content Warnings

Please check which of the following best describes the piece you are performing:

Level 1: No offensive language at any time. No inappropriate references or content. May contain mild slapstick, fairytale violence, or brief moments of peril, but nothing that would be disturbing to the vast majority of young children.

Level 2: Infrequent mild adult language. May contain indirect references to sexuality. May address adult topics, including death and divorce. May include mild adult situations such as smoking or drinking. May contain highly comedic violence.

Level 3: Some moderate adult language. May address adult content including drug use, violence, and suicide. May include adult situations such as substance abuse, infrequent violence, such as slaps or basic swordplay. May contain direct references to sexuality and mild sexual situations. May contain situations that could be frightening for children.

Level 4: Contains severe adult language, suggestive sexual content, frequent and moderate violence, including gun violence and death. May directly depict adult content such as suicide, illegal activities and drug use. May include situations that are intense and frightening for children. Not suitable for young students.

Note: Mild cursing includes curse words, but does not include religious cursing or the f-word. Moderate cursing includes curse words and religious slurs, but does not include the f-word. Severe cursing includes all curse words and religious slurs, including the f-word.
